

L. Richardson Preyer Alumni Award

OBJECTIVE – Leadership North Carolina is dedicated to the principle that informed and motivated individuals, acting as leaders, will be the most important factor in making our State a desirable place to live a productive, rewarding, and satisfying life. Leadership North Carolina, in carrying out its mission of developing informed, engaged and motivated leaders, will also recognize leadership “role models” as evidenced by their individual contributions to our communities and our State.

The LNC L. Richardson Preyer Alumni Award is one such award, which is presented in honor of the late Richardson Preyer, a former US Congressman and leading citizen from Greensboro, who was one of the founders of Leadership North Carolina. In his honor and memory, the L. Richardson Preyer Alumni Award is presented annually to an LNC graduate whose demonstrated leadership has made a significant improvement in the quality of life, economic well-being and/or sense of community in our State. who has given of his time, talent, and resources to make our State a better place to live and to work.

AWARD CRITERIA – The Leadership North Carolina L. Richardson Preyer Alumni Award will be presented to an alumnae/alumnus of the Leadership North Carolina program whose demonstrated leadership has made a significant improvement in the quality of life, economic well-being and/or sense of community in our State.

Questions to consider when selecting a nominee include any or all of the following examples:

- What are the nominee’s most significant leadership roles in professional or civic activities?
- What are the nominee’s leadership skills and characteristics?
- In what ways has the nominee had an impact on the economy and quality of life in his/her community and/or the state?
- How has the nominee impacted others?
- Why is the nominee deserving of this award?

ELIGIBILITY AND SELECTION – Any alumnae/alumnus of the Leadership North Carolina program is eligible for the LNC L. Richardson Preyer Award with the exception of previous recipients (see page 2). A roster of all LNC Alumni can be found by clicking HERE. Alumnae/alumnus of the LNC program will submit nominations to the LNC Awards Committee who will then review each nomination and select the recipient.

AWARD PRESENTATION

Recipients will be recognized during the Annual Graduation & Awards Ceremony May 13, 2010 at the North Carolina Capitol in Raleigh.

DEADLINE FOR NOMINATIONS

Please use the following page to complete your confidential nomination. Nominations must be received by mail, fax or email to awards@leadershipnc.org, by March 26, 2010.

PREVIOUS RECIPIENTS

Previous recipients of the L. Richardson Preyer Alumni Award are listed below.

Class I:	None	Class IX:	Michael Blackwell
Class II:	Libba Evans	Class X:	Scott Carlberg
Class III:	Ann Clark	Class XI:	Chip Hagan
Class IV:	John Lauritzen Jr.	Class XII:	Tony Zeiss
Class V:	Jim Woodall	Class XIII:	Hilda Pinnix-Ragland
Class VI:	Linda Staunch	Class XIV:	Lois Nixon
Class VII:	Sharon Plain	Class XV:	Nan Griswold
Class VIII:	John Tabor	Class XVI:	Kenneth Peacock

2010 L. RICHARDSON PREYER ALUMNI AWARD NOMINATION

Name of Nominee:

Nominated by:

Write an endorsement of your nominee, focusing on the criteria outlined on the previous page. Nominations submitted without this written endorsement will not be considered. Deadline: March 26, 2010.

Begin your text here:

Mail: Leadership North Carolina 2700 Wycliff Road Suite 402 Raleigh, NC 27607	Fax: 919-803-5402	Email: awards@leadershipnc.org
---	------------------------------------	--